

CohoUS National Conference 2019 Fact Sheet

Email: 2019@cohousing.org

Website: <https://2019.cohousing.org>

The 2019 National Cohousing Conference will be in Portland Oregon on May 30 – June 2, 2019 Portland, Oregon. The theme is “The Community for the Health of it”.

Please join us at this national cohousing conference. There is something for everyone —those exploring the idea, newly forming groups or existing communities. Programming includes:

- Cohousing Bus Tours & Open Houses
- 2-days of Pre-Conference Intensives
- Multiple Tracks of sessions: Build It – Live It – Sustain It
- Facilitated Discussions & ample Networking Opportunities

TOURS & INTENSIVES May 30-31

On Thursday and Friday, May 30-31, there are both full day and half day offerings before the conference. Full day tours and intensives are $150 and half day are $75 each.

Pre-Conference Tours and Intensives

FRIDAY NIGHT May 31

Invite your friends in the Portland area to learn about Cohousing: Creating Community One Neighborhood at a Time, a free public talk by Grace Kim. Conference attendees do not need to reserve a spot. This free public talk will be held at Eliot Chapel. Reserve now.

SATURDAY NIGHT June 1, KEYNOTE BANQUET

Our Featured Keynote will be Courtney E. Martin, author of The New Better Off: Reinventing the American Dream, which explores how people are redefining the American Dream. She lives in Temescal Commons, a co-housing community in Oakland.

SUNDAY OPEN HOUSES June 2

There are 7 cohousing communities who will be holding open houses from 3:30 – 5 pm on Sunday June 2 (Green Grove – 2 pm- 6 pm). Stop by after the Conference, meet more cohousers, take a tour, view homes and find out more about how cohousing really operates.

REGISTRATION

Early Bird Discount: $375
Regular Registration: $445
5 for price of 4
Register Now

VENUE

Hilton Portland Downtown

Located at 921 SW 6th Avenue
Special Room Rate while supplies last